Banking Security Tips

- Do not share your Login ID and Password.
- When accessing Citibank Online, always check that the Citibank website has a valid certificate marked to Citigroup Inc (US). We recommend that you enter the bank's address (e.g. www.ipb.citibank.com.sg) in your browser URL field to access and login to your account.
- Never provide the One Time Password (OTP) that is sent to your mobile phone to anyone, including people claiming to be from Citibank.
- Always check SMS alerts from Citibank and review your banking transactions regularly for any unauthorised transactions.
- Do not send personal or confidential information to the bank via email.
- Safeguard your personal checkbook and online security devices.
- Do not sign on any blank or incomplete form.
- Advise the bank immediately of any potential compromise of passwords.
- Only Bank Tellers are authorized to handle cash transactions. Do not hand cash to any other Bank personnel. Alternatively, you may deposit cash using the bank's Cash Deposit Machine.
- For any query or discrepancy on an account, the bank should be contacted through CitiPhone or be raised to the Branch Manager directly.
- Never reply to any emails that ask you to submit sensitive information such as your online banking usernames/ passwords, card numbers, CVV codes, account numbers, OTP or Unlock code. Citi will never email you asking for this sensitive information.

► Important – Please Read Before Making Investment Decisions

During the process of making decisions to grow, protect or preserve your wealth, there are important pointers to observe. At Citibank, the Relationship Manager, Treasury Services Manager / Associate Director / Director / Investment Counselors / Portfolio Counselors are certified* to introduce to you the following products to help you achieve your financial goals – a range of investment, treasury and capital market products such as Investment Funds, fixed income instruments, Premium Account and foreign exchange trading products. In addition, should you have any insurance needs to help protect your wealth and your family from uncertainties, your Relationship Manager may provide you with insurance advice, or refer you to either our Wealth Planning Managers or appointed third party certified insurance advisors.

* Fulfilled minimum entry and examination requirements under Financial Advisers Act

Investment responsibility

Your account with Citibank will be on a “Recommended” relationship. As part of our services on a “Recommended” relationship, subject to the laws in your home country, we may from time to time avail to you information, including recommendations, on various investments. Please note the following in such situations:

- The information and recommendations do not constitute investment advice and you are not obligated to accept them.
- You should only make investments that you understand and that are consistent with your financial circumstances and needs, investment objectives and risk tolerance.
- If you have questions relating to a specific investment, you should speak with your Relationship Manager or product specialist assigned to your account.
- If you require legal or tax counsel, we recommend that you consult your own independent legal and tax advisors as necessary.
- All investment decisions relating to your account are yours solely.
- Unless otherwise agreed and we have your written authorization, Citi will not have any discretionary trading authorization in relation to your account. We will seek your authorization prior to executing any transaction.

Make a Better Investment Decision

Before you make an investment decision, our Citibank representative will conduct an investment risk profile with you. Before our Citibank representative make a recommendation on insurance products, he will help you complete a Personal Financial Record. Essentially, our representatives will ask a series of questions to help determine your financial situation or standing, how much risk you can take, and your investment objectives or particular needs.

Based on the information you provide (or choose not to provide) during the profile, our representative will make recommendations appropriate to your needs and objectives. It is important that you provide correct and complete information during the profile as it would help us conduct an accurate assessment. You should be aware that incorrect and/or incomplete information, and/or non-disclosure of certain information would adversely affect the results of the profile.

The investment risk profile or Personal Financial Record, while wide ranging, will not be able to take into account all issues you should consider, and your decision may differ from any recommendations proposed. Prior to making an investment decision, you should conduct your own study of the investment/insurance product in question to ensure that it matches your objectives.

We undertake no obligation to analyze the past performance of your portfolio against the investment objectives attributed to it.

As a result of our assessments of your investment risk profile, we may from time to time recommend to you that you do not execute any given transaction. Should you for any reason elect to proceed nonetheless, we will note the transaction appropriately and you should note that this may affect our assessment of your investment profile and also investment recommendations that may be made to you as a result.

Portfolio Diversification

Portfolio diversification is an important element for an individual to consider when making investment decisions. Concentrated positions may entail greater risks than a diversified portfolio. Certain factors that affect the assessment of whether your overall investment portfolio is sufficiently diversified may not be evident from a review of only your Citi account. It therefore is important that you carefully review your entire investment portfolio to ensure that it meets your investment goals and is within your risk tolerance, including your objectives for asset and issuer diversification. If you would like to discuss diversification, please contact your Relationship Manager or Investment Counselor.

Citibank Brokerage Account*

Should you decide to establish a Citibank Brokerage Account with us, you should note that the Citibank Brokerage Account will not be operated on a “Recommended” relationship basis because Citi and its employees will only execute buy-sell instructions from you (save for where Citi is specifically required to provide advice in connection with the Customer Account Review under the Notice on the Sale of Investment Products (SFA 04-N12) (references to this notice include any amendments, variations or supplemental to the notice)).

Citibank Brokerage Account customers may receive research publications or market updates from us. For the avoidance of doubt, such material is provided solely by way for information only and for the purpose of general circulation. Any recommendation or advice that may be expressed in or inferred from such information, reports, publications therefore does not take into account and may not be suitable for your investment objectives, financial situation and particular needs and, bearing in mind the possibility of market volatility and changes, may not even comprise current information, opinions or market views. Please be advised that such updates are provided for your information only and should not to be treated as investment or financial advice provided by Citi or any of its employees.

* Use of the term “Citibank Brokerage Account” means a Securities Account as defined in the Agreement for Citibank Securities Services.

The Bank’s Remuneration

Investment Products

As your distributor of investment funds, Citibank Singapore Ltd will receive the following remuneration:

- (i) 100% of the upfront sales charge or the maximum realization charges/contingent deferred sales charge (as applicable) on any subscription of investment funds; and
- (ii) On-going basis trailer fees which is a percentage of the recurring management fees payable to the fund manager of the investment funds. For more details, please refer to the Investment Funds Terms and Conditions.

Insurance Products

Our Relationship Managers may with your written consent, introduce you to appointed 3rd party certified Insurance Advisors. In such an instance, Citibank Singapore Ltd may receive an introducer fee.

By law in Singapore, insurance companies and their distributors, must reveal all costs and charges associated with the insurance product you buy, including any commission paid to the distributor. This amount varies according to the product and will be disclosed in the insurance benefit illustration provided by our Citibank representatives or 3rd party certified Insurance Advisors.

If You Should Change Your Mind

For Singapore-Registered Unit Trusts Only

If you should change your mind after making an investment, you have the option to back out within a cancellation period of 7 calendar days, starting from the date you sign the purchase agreement. (If the 7th day falls on a Sunday or a public holiday, the cancellation period is extended to the next calendar day (excluding Sundays or public holidays).) A cancellation fee may apply.

Simply send your cancellation request(s) through your Relationship Manager at Bank branches or by ordinary post to Citibank Singapore Ltd, International Personal Bank, Robinson Road, P.O. Box 0361, Singapore 900711. In the case of requests through post, the date of the postmark is taken as the date of cancellation.

Upon receipt of your cancellation request, we will refund you the following:

- (i) The amount originally paid for the units, or the amount equivalent to the prevailing market price (defined as the next available dealing price following the receipt of the cancellation request), whichever is lower; and
- (ii) Any sales charge or front-end load imposed.

Deferred/realization charges, applicable for some unit trusts, will not be imposed. If you cancel an agreement for unit trusts purchased through a switch, you will receive monies and not the earlier units from which the switch takes place.

You may also choose to redeem your units instead of cancellation. Redemption procedures will then apply. Redemption proceeds, however, may be lower than the amount refunded in a cancellation.

Please note that the right to cancel is NOT applicable under the following circumstances: -

- (i) The investor is a participant in a unit trust, and he subsequently purchases units in that unit trust or participates in a Regular Savings Plan of that unit trust;
- (ii) The investor participates in the second and any subsequent payment of a Regular Savings Plan; or
- (iii) Where the unit trust in question is from any of the following classes:-
 - i. Foreign funds recognized under Section 287(2) of the Securities and Futures Act; or
 - ii. A unit trust that is listed on a securities exchange approved under Section 9 of the Securities and Futures Act.

For Singapore Registered Life Insurance Products Only

If you should change your mind, you may cancel the life insurance product (not applicable to general insurance products) by written request to the insurance company within 14 days of receiving the policy document. If you do, the premium paid less medical fees incurred in assessing the risk under the policy will be refunded. If the policy is sent by post, it is deemed to have been delivered and received in the ordinary course of the post.

When you buy a life insurance policy, our Citibank representatives or 3rd party certified Insurance Advisors will provide you with a copy of "Your Guide to Life Insurance" issued by the Life Insurance Association in Singapore. For more details, copies for your reference are also available on request.

Send Us Your Feedback

Check clearing periods stated exclude holidays in the respective country of that currency.

Effective February 2025, the information contained in this brochure is accurate at time of printing.

All interest rates for time deposits & transaction accounts, fees, charges and terms & conditions are subject to change without notice.

Foreign Exchange Transactions (including Gold Transactions):

Citibank will earn a spread from foreign exchange transactions (including Gold transactions) and all prices quoted by Citibank will include the spread.

For transactions which have a minimum notional amount of US$25,000 (or equivalent) and which are booked through sales staff, the maximum spread is as follows:

| Transaction | Maximum spread* |
|---|-----------------------------------|
| FX Exchange Transactions (including FX Spot, FX Forwards and Gold Transactions) | Up to 1.5% of the notional amount |
| FX Options (including Gold Options) | Up to 1.0% of the notional amount |

*Any benefit from price improvements during execution, that is in excess of the maximum spread indicated above, will be passed back to clients in full.

For all other transactions i.e. transactions that are booked through other channels or have a notional amount of less than US$25,000 (or equivalent), standard board rates (inclusive of spread) will apply.

Premium Accounts:

Max. spread for Premium Accounts* (dual currency) is up to 10% p.a. and for Premium Accounts (with Gold as base / alternate financial instrument) is up to 15% p.a.

*A Premium Account offers potentially higher returns than a traditional time deposit because, in addition to the normal money market interest rate, there is a potential option-related yield from the currency / financial instrument portion embedded in the product. Citibank Singapore Limited acts as principal in the transaction relating to the Premium Account and may receive remuneration; such remuneration is included in the final transaction amount. The higher rate of interest you may earn in the Premium Account as compared to a traditional time deposit may not compensate you for the foreign exchange loss. A Premium Account is not a deposit and is not subject to the provisions of the Policy Owners' Protection Schemes Act 2011 of Singapore nor eligible for deposit insurance coverage under the Deposit Insurance Scheme.

Privacy

Over the years, Citigroup has built and maintained a solid record of achievement in the area of customer privacy. Our customers trust us implicitly to safeguard their personal and financial data as closely as we do with their money.

◆ Privacy at Citigroup

Our goal is to maintain your trust and confidence when handling personal information about you.
